Anticipate the Outcome of Every Player on Each Tour

In a witty, irreverent approach John Gordon examines the players of the PGA, LPGA, and Senior PGA tours in the sort of detail that was previously available only to sports journalists and corporate endorsement scouts. Gordon's analysis of players' statistics, personal information, career history, strengths and weaknesses is candid. This is all provided in a single-page treatment, along with a photograph of each player and personal anecdotes. A former golf magazine (SCORE and Golf Canada) editor and golf association executive, John Gordon is a member of the "Golf Writers of America" and the president of The Gordon Group, which specializes in consulting and communications for the golf industry.
